

Round table: Climate changes and energy

May 11th, Webinar

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

12:00 – 13:30	Introductory words	Simon Ilse, director of the Belgrade office – Heinrich Boell Foundation
	Moderator: UPES
	Subjects and participants:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Review of basic elements of the Law on climate changes – Milos Kuzman, vice president of UPES- Effects of the Law on climate changes - Gordana Petkovic, expert in environmental protection and editor of the Ecology section of the Kopoanik School of Natural Law- Material effects of energy on climate changes and a need for an adequate legal frame - Aleksandar Kovacevic, advisor of the group 15 for energy of the National Convent on European Union- Novelties on human rights protection in the context of climate changes - Mirjana Drenovak, professor at the Faculty of Law, Belgrade University- Renewable energy sources – response to the climate change consequences - Danijela Isailovic, manager of RES Serbia and member of UPES- EU Green Plan and how EU sets up a balance between climate changes and need for energy – CEPS (Centre for European Policy Studies), Brussels*
	DISCUSSION

* to be confirmed

During the round table a simultaneous interpretation in Serbian and English will be provided.

Round table was supported by

Technical secretariat:
BBN CONGRESS MANAGEMENT DOO
Deligradska 9, Belgrade

SERBIAN ENERGY LAW ASSOCIATION
Belgrade, Tadesa Kosuska 30
office@upes.rs | www.upes.rs